The Civil Rights Law Institute

AT THOMAS JEFFERSON'S MONTICELLO
OCTOBER 10 & 11, 2024

Join us & sponsor.

The Civil Rights Law Institute

is an annual symposium exploring civil rights through legal and societal perspectives. Set at Thomas Jefferson's Monticello, this unique CLE experience discusses topics of timely importance through conversations with leaders from Virginia and the nation.

Align your business with this important program, connect with thought leaders from across Virginia and the country, and participate in conversations upholding the Rule of Law and justice for all.
