

National Trial Advocacy College 2026

AT WILLIAM & MARY LAW SCHOOL

August 8–12

If you are a practicing lawyer who wants to be a confident, successful advocate, we invite you to experience National Trial Advocacy College.

Through the College's unique combination of expert lectures, small-group training, and realistic trial simulations, participants:

- Receive the most intensive hands-on advocacy training possible
- Learn from daily presentations and captivating demonstrations by the finest trial lawyers and judges in the nation
- Practice every day with a small group of lawyers with similar experience
- Complete the program by trying an entire case in a mock trial
- Leave the program prepared to persuade and argue any aspect of a case at any phase of the litigation
